FROM : Chief, Plans and Policy Staff

SUBJECT: Weekly Activity Report #29

1. CIA Liaison at Fort Bragg

[redacted] has been assigned to Fort Bragg, N. C. as CIA representative to the U. S. Army Special Warfare Center (SWC) and to the Strategic Army Command (STRAC). At the request of [redacted]

25X1

[redacted] AC/CA/PMG, [redacted] will be briefed by OTR on Monday, 25 July 1960, beginning with DTR, DDTR, and C/PPS at 0900 and the Operations School at 1000. A visit [redacted] will be scheduled at a later date. Incidentally, [redacted] probably will represent SWC as well as CA/PMG and our Senior War Planners at the FTX in Germany in September. The OTR briefing will include a review of [redacted]

2. Relations with FE Division

[redacted] is receiving excellent cooperation from FE Division in doing his initial research on our interpreter project. He has talked to [redacted] and we have clearance from [redacted]

25X1

[redacted], for him to talk with [redacted] on the problems of instructing foreign groups with the use of American and foreign interpreters-translators. Our overall objective in this project is to help minimize the language barrier in CIA training of foreign personnel.

SECRET4. SPA-DD/S

C/PPS gave [redacted] new SPA-DD/S, a short briefing on OTR organization and functions and brought him up to date on current OTR activities of particular interest to the SPA. The latter included OTR war and contingency planning, vital documents, Overseas Training, [redacted] participation in the Special Forces FTX, and reserve training. [redacted] was enthusiastic over his recent training at the Industrial College/Armed Forces. His class made a field trip to European industrial installations and shared in a number of National War College lectures. On the basis of his description of the course there seems little doubt that it is very valuable to CIA students. (NOTE: Mr. [redacted] would get much from it.)
